Reasons to Train the Trainer

The best alternative for training workers is sometimes engaging the services of a third party organization to be able to carry out the training and certification. There are nonetheless lots of good reasons to send some of your workers to Train the Trainer courses. Your company could benefit by maximizing your investment. Teaching an existing staff individual to train other staff is cheaper compared to hiring somebody new. Businesses should avoid expecting individuals to take on trainer responsibilities on top of their existing responsibilities. The chosen trainer must be relieved of some of their responsibilities to be able to avoid trainer burnout.

Developing training resources internally helps to empower your business, increase its resources and encourage staff to be self-reliant. With an in-house trainer, other staff members may feel more comfortable learning new skills than they would with someone new. By training internally, new workers can quickly be trained and brought up to speed on the equipment in case of staff turnover.
